About the Seminar

The Church is called to be a prophetic and compassionate voice of leadership in our communities. Dr. Bass will address how the neighborhood Church is transforming the faith. A day that promises to both challenge and encourage.

Who Should Attend

Members and leaders invested in their congregation's future ministry will find insight and hope through this event's presentations and discussion.

This event will be ideal for an adult education or youth group to participate in together or for committees such as Christian education, mission, evangelism, or outreach to attend.
